d. On Relations with the Public, by Mail or in Person:
The President asked Civil Service Commission Chairman John Macy to survey the present policies and practices throughout the government and to make recommendations to the Cabinet for improvements.

e. On Interagency Committees: In addition to requests for reports on this subject, the President urged compliance with these two policies:

-- That statutory creation of interagency committees be discouraged and resisted.

-- That in creating such committees it be the practice to specify at the time of creation a time for termination.

f. On Urban Problems: The President expressed the hope that where appropriate, speeches and statements by officials of the government will include emphasis upon the efforts now being made legislatively to meet the needs and problems of the Nation's urban areas.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES

Subject: Reports in Response to President's Statement to the Cabinet on Interagency Committees

I have discussed with the Cabinet Secretary the President's statement on interagency committees at the February 25 Cabinet meeting. Mr. Busby has agreed to the following procedures.

1. By March 5 you should submit to the President four (4) copies of a complete list of all interagency committees chaired by your agency. It will not be necessary to indicate any further information beyond the name of the committee.
2. About March 13 you will receive from the Bureau of the Budget a list of committees about whose continued existence questions have been raised by the White House and this agency. You will also receive at that time supplementary instructions for the April 30 reports under Circular A-63.
3. By April 30, you should submit a report to the Bureau of the Budget as required by Circular A-63. This report should include the information listed in Section 6 of the Circular.
4. On the basis of the A-63 reports, the Bureau of the Budget will prepare the information required by the President.

To make it possible to provide this information promptly to the President, it is requested that agencies make every effort to adhere to these deadlines.
